

What's my legacy?

Sensational Stamps

When something is a big deal in NZ, it gets a stamp!

These four amazing stamps were commissioned by NZ Post Collectables to celebrate Forest & Bird's 100th birthday.

They were illustrated by NZ artist Rachel Walker and tell the story of Forest & Bird's work so far...

This stamp reflects our beginnings protecting manu on Kāpiti Island.

This stamp is all about protecting marine species and the ocean they live in. Did you know NZ is the seabird capital of the world?

© Wild Things Issue 159, May 2023. Published by Forest & Bird

Pātai Challenge

CELEBRATING
100
YEARS 1923-2023

Let's get future focused!

Your say is valuable! Design another stamp that shows what native plants and animals, wild places, or environmental issues you think Forest & Bird should be focused on during our next 100 years!

$5.00

This stamp shows how much we value our forests, rivers, wetlands, and lakes. We've helped with some great discoveries, like the tautuku gecko!

This stamp shows animals and plants living on the Buller Plateau. It is all about putting nature first in our response to climate change.

Show us your mahi by emailing kccinbox@forestandbird.org.nz

Entries close
2 June 2023

Be in to win one of five Forest & Bird 2023 first day covers!

© Wild Things Issue 159, May 2023. Published by Forest & Bird