

Ask your MPs to support a ZCB Zero Carbon Bill

USE YOUR VOICE

It will make it the law that New Zealand will quickly and greatly lower its greenhouse gas emissions, and will provide a plan to make it happen.

Here is a letter starter to help you write to your local MPs to ask them to support an effective ZCB.

We need most of our MPs to support a ZCB for it to pass. Their vote is based on what their constituents (people living in their area) are asking them for.

If you're not sure who to write to, we have made a helpful list on our website here: kcc.org.nz/contact-your-MPs

Kia ora [MP's name],

My name is _____.

I live in _____ and I am _____ years old.

I would like you to support a strong Zero Carbon Bill that keeps warming to no more than 1.5 degrees. This will protect nature and people from climate change.

Climate change is very important to me because I've seen:
[Give some examples of how your world is changing]

Will you help pass the Zero Carbon Bill to lower our greenhouse gas emissions?

Ngā mihi,

[Your name]

[Your address – so they can write back to you]

Some MPs already know they'll be voting for a ZCB we need, but many are still thinking about it (especially in the National and NZ First parties) - they might be who you decide to write to first.
